On Oct. 1, 1992, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Quilley v. United States, 509 U.S. 703, 115 S.Ct. 1642, 126 L.Ed.2d 688, that the federal government's policy of requiring the payment of a fee for a passport application is unconstitutional. The Court held that the fee is a tax, and that the government's policy of requiring the payment of a fee for a passport application is unconstitutional.

Bonus Chapter: Mirkun's Secret

My Darling Kitten Har Character Introduction

Kaschi Sawadimon at age 24

...Nickname: Kerchan

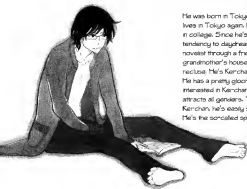

He's a Hokkaido native, who never left Otaru for the first 24 years of his life. He's Minkun's old friend and an office worker. He's serious and well-liked by elderly people, but he's ignorant of com sequences, surprisingly short-tempered, naturally oily and has Minkun totally wrapped around his finger. He follows early to bed, early to rise as a principle and he can't start the day without breakfast. He's a slow eater.

Moskuro Hanakichiro at age 24

...Nickname: Minkun

He was born in Tokyo, raised in Otaru, and now lives in Tokyo again. He majored in literature in college. Since he's an avid reader and has a tendency to daydream, he got a job as a porn novelist through a friend. He manages his grandmother's house, and has mostly been a recluse. He's Kerchan's old friend. He has a pretty gloomy personality and he's only interested in Kerchan. He's lazy, but somehow it attracts all gankers. Though he's devoted to Kerchan, he's easily swayed by other people. He's the so-called spineless loser.

Asagayansan, his first name is a secret

..Nickname: Pomchan, Ponko

He's a manager at a transsexual bar, where he met Mirkun as his customer, and became the longtime tenant at Matsubi House. He's romantic and a weepy drunk, who gets motivated about caring for others. His use of profanity makes him socially acceptable. He has a passionate crush on Hinonsan and he can't live without love♥

Har-chan the cat at age 3

...Mirkun took her in when she was a kitten and she has been living at Matsubi House ever since. She's very friendly and good at entertaining people. She's spoiled.

Yoko Kogunersan at an unknown age

..Nickname: Yokorsan

She's Pomchan's friend and moved to Matsubi House after her divorce. She supports Kenta by working at a hostess club. Her exhusband's whereabouts are unknown. She's a neater and isn't afraid of anything. Alcohol, some money and Kenta are all she needs. She and Hinonsan dislike each other.

Kenta Kogure at age 6

..Nickname: Kenta

Kentarkun is the only person at Matsubi House who has a conscience, and he's growing up surrounded by many adults. He's mature and dependable at school.

Schei Minumisan at age 26
...Nickname! Minumisan

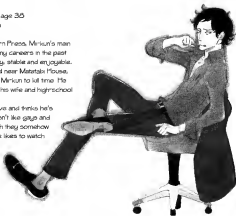

He's Mirkun's older friend from college. He hasn't graduated but has been busy with the theatre company he founded. He's a playwright and rates on Mirkun's literary collection. He has a girlfriend in his hometown, who he hasn't seen in years. He's a looser who loves to play mahjong, and his influence had a great impact on making Mirkun the loser he is today. He has a lot of otaku toys and has no intention of moving out. He's good-natured but vulgar, and often butts into other people's business.

Ninisan the cat at age 6
...Minumisan took in the male cat. He's grumpy but likes to always be around people. He has bad breath and has been neutered.

Masaomi Minoran at age 35
...Nickname! Minoran

He's the editor at Porn Press, Mirkun's main client. He has had many careers in the past but finds this job easy, stable and enjoyable. Porn Press is located near Matsutake House, where he often visits Mirkun to kill time. He has lived alone since his wife and high-school age son left him. He's pretty aggressive and thinks he's superior, but he doesn't like gays and drag queens, although they somehow find him attractive. He likes to watch yakuza movies.

Afterword

Thank you for taking your time to read My Darling Kitten Han. I'm Kumota. I hope you enjoyed this book.

This book is a story full of my dreams. It was something I've always wanted to do. I dreamed of living in this type of house often found in Tokyo suburbs, being a Hokkaido native, living amongst carefree people or being a man and having a partner. I decided that, if given the chance, I'd put my desire of having a life like Minkun or Karchan on paper, even though I'm very satisfied with my lifestyle of creating a manga of my wil in the village I live in at the moment. Aren't I easygoing?

When I started to draw all my wishful thinking—this was my first serialization—I realized the difficulty in getting characters to act as I desired, which made the serialization process particularly interesting. It was so much fun that I've become more of an on-looker into their lives. I'm anxious to see what will happen to these two men. I only have an idea for another two chapters, though. I'm bad.

In the book, the main characters discover their bond after overcoming various obstacles. It isn't easy to live with another person. At first, people feel resignation, forgiveness, despair and frustration, but they still live with others to help them discover something. I can't explain what it is, but I hope I can show you in the course of time.

Mirkun and Kerchan's story will continue for a while longer. It isn't over yet. I'd like to gradually show Kerchan giving himself up to Mirkun and Mirkun being influenced by Kerchan. I hope that you continue to support my manga.

Lastly, I want to give my thanks to my editor, Kondorsama, who let me create such a laidback manga, Naorsan and Bashrsan, who frequently gave me assistance on my manga, Citron magazine readers, who gave me positive comments, readers of this book, the designer and the printing company. Your support helped me create this book. I hope to see you in the next volume of My Darling Kitten Han.

Anxiously waiting for spring. Maruko Kumota

My Darling Kitten Hair Character Introduction Part 2

Haruku Teuchiyarsan at age 21

Nickname: Haru and Harunkun

He's a free and energetic young man, who was born in Tokyo, raised in the United States and who has been living on his own in Tokyo since high school. He studies dance while making a living as a freelancer. He's good at getting people to take care of him, and his candor and pretty face make everyone fall for him. (There are plenty of haters, too, but it doesn't faze him.) He refuses to have a specific lover even though he's lonely, which makes him troublesome. He's friendly to everyone while being rather prickly at times. He is honest by nature yet he's frighteningly stupid.

Chifuyu Kishararsan at age 31

Nickname: Kishararsan

He was born and raised in Tokyo. He's a major cat lover. He is a former teacher who currently makes high earnings at an unknown job. He knows how to get ahead in the world.

He rents a condo which serves as his workplace in Tokyo and lives partially with Harunkun. He believes he is in a relationship after making multiple confessions of love to Harunkun, but finds it difficult when Haru disagrees. Yet he can put up with anything for The Great Haru. Though he can be a top or bottom, Harunkun prefers to top, so he is content with strictly being bottom for now. He is being taken advantage of, but he's happy. ♡

Natsumi Sekaguchin-san at age 27
Nickname! Natchan

She's a dashing wife who was born and raised in Otaru. She's Kenchan's big sister and a former punk who works in seafood processing industry. She is openminded. She is nice to Minkun, but she treats Kenchan like a slave. She's a hard worker, who is loyal, compassionate and caring, and younger people like her big sister-like behavior. She's crazy about her husband, a former punk.

Yuto Sekaguchin-san at age 6
Nickname! Yutchi

He's the firstborn grandchild of the Sawada Family and he just started elementary school. He treasures his bear backpack. Both his parents have such abrasive personalities so he became quiet by contrast. He's less assertive, but he is well-aware of his natural cuteness.

Kayano Hanabichin-san at age 70
Nickname! Obaachan

She's a truly rich lady from Yamanote who was born and raised in Tokyo. She loves Matsutani House as one of her houses so she has Minkun live there and manage it for her. She has lived a good, happy life, but she dotes on Minkun after losing her son and husband. She can accept things just as they are and she currently enjoys the carefree life of a single person. Her hobby of gardening became a career; she occasionally writes articles in magazines, participates in contests and teaches classes. She gets worshipped as a grand madam by her students. What concerns her now is for Minkun and Kenchan to break up completely and then to acquire more refined residents at Matsutani House. She has an acid personality.

Afterword

Thank you for waiting a year to read My Darling Kitten Hair Volume 2. I hope you enjoyed it. This is Kumota.

Nothing has happened in Mirkun' and Kerchan's story, but I think Kerchan has changed enough to notice it while I was drawing him. As other characters act on their own, Kerchan is coming to life in each chapter. I guess someone rustic like him can quickly blend in with the city crowd. Mirkun really needs to try hard.

A long time ago, I lived in an apartment similar to Matatabi House, where I lacked privacy and I'd get invited to a rowdy drinking party whenever I talked to someone. To be honest, I initially found it unbearable, but I grew to enjoy it after a while. You can get accustomed to people. It made it harder for me to part with them, though. We all became longtime friends.

Maybe I embrace the importance of people in my network to this day and age. Please don't give up. Take good care of your loved ones however you can. Find more people you like. I hope this manga will make you yearn for these things.

My Darling Kitten Hair has developed into a manga documentary, but there's still more to come. I want to continue the series while I have content to draw in order to see the men they will become. I can tell you with confidence that I have no ending in mind, but I plan to introduce Kei-chan and Mirkun back when they were students in Otaru in Volume 3, which I hope you will read.

Lastly, I want to give many thanks to Libre Publishing, which is allowing me to do this story as I please, Kondo-sama the manager, Kanoko-san, who gave me a full tour of Otaru, readers of the series in Citron Magazine, people who wrote me or came to my autograph session, my book cover designer and my printing company. Thank you for reading. See you next year in this series.
